Expression of farewell to Mr. Francis K. Butagira, Permanent Representative of Uganda to the United Nations

The President (spoke in French): I have been informed that our respected colleague, Ambassador Francis Butagira, Permanent Representative of Uganda, is attending a Security Council meeting for the last time today before he returns to Uganda. Our cooperation with him within the Council has been far too brief, but Ambassador Butagira has been the Permanent Representative of Uganda to the United Nations for five years. During that period, we have all had the opportunity to work closely with him in one way or another, and, in doing so, we have been able to appreciate his great professional qualities, the experience that he has always been ready to share with us, the kindness and courtesy he showed his colleagues, his great openness and his spirit of cooperation. We regret his departure and wish him every success in his future duties.
